Jr.

His brand of reactionism was a tired and disaffected one. His was an acknowledgment that no one is any better than anyone else and that there is a lot of chaos mixed in with a lot of bad judgment and bad actors (actions?) that result in the shambles of the world we know and have to navigate.

The Asshole and the Proto-Emoji - About Kurt Vonnegut and ...

In Vonnegut's conception of humanity, everyone is just as equal as anyone else, because if you strip away all the layers of sociality, history, circumstances, and so on, you are left with a perfect and transcendent band of luminous awareness standing out from the chaos of the world. Thus Vonnegut reverses his earlier claim of bringing chaos to the world.
