My book about being and becoming a storyteller and the power of stories to transform and heal our lives Coming Home to Story: Storytelling Beyond Happily Ever After was published by Vala in November 2011. I am currently working on The Ring of Minos, a story cycle based on Cretan and Minoan archaeology and mythology. These stories formed the basis of my performance with Stella Kassimati at the 2011 Scottish International Storytelling Festival.

When Himself said he was going on a Freefall Course and that I could come with him, I imagined high jinks at 15,000 feet – like Henry the paragliding Cockapoo in this picture. Imagine my disappointment when we got to Hawkwood College and I was made to lie silently in front of the fire while a dozen people sat around listening to stories.

Standing Ovation Storytelling Skills for Storytelling in Business. The word storytelling is misleading. The best storytellers don't simply "tell" stories. They make their story come alive with physical animation, vocal interpretation and real emotion. In other words, they move beyond story-telling to Story Theater.
