Dream On Amber

Dream On Amber is about a half Italian, half Japanese girl called Amber who hates her name, hates how she looks and how short she is, wants a new phone, can't stand anything that's gross, misses her dad, is an artist and has trouble starting her new school. It was kinda cute, but annoying at the same time.

Dream On, Amber by Emma Shevah - Goodreads

"DREAM ON, AMBER is a strong example of contemporary realistic fiction. It addresses modern topics, such as fitting in, bullying and growing up, that many readers will be able to relate to. Amber is a unique and relatable voice for what it means to have a multicultural background.

Though Dream On, Amber is ripe with opportunities for didacticism, Amber's appealingly oddball voice makes the lessons go down easy. Dream On, Amber also does something unusual for a children's book that grapples with race: It does not solve Amber's biracial identity crisis. Though Amber struggles with the questions of her missing father and Japanese identity, the biggest lesson of this book is that sometimes there are no answers.
