"Meet Mr. and Mrs. Green" is a silly book that would be great for 2nd or 3rd grade students. It is set up almost like a chapter book, but is very easy to read, while still making children feel like they're reading a bigger book. I liked this book when I was young because it was a fun read and made me feel like I was reading a "big kid" book.

Meet Mr. and Mrs. Green by Keith Baker - Goodreads

Baker's (Quack and Count) lively acrylics cascade in an array of festive colors: lime green, citrus yellow, mango and lavender among them. Whether depicting Mrs. Green encouraging Mr. Green to meet his goal by eating his 100th pancake or the two alligators riding their scooters to the fair, Baker's cartoon-like paintings bubble over with humor.
