Passive income is the income you earn from doing little to no work.

You'll have to do some upfront work, but then the money just comes in. Sometimes the money keeps coming in due to the type of passive income. Other sources of passive income are passive because you delegate any maintenance work that need to get done.

Brad Hines, another big fan of passive income, estimates about 10% to 15% of his income is passive. He first heard the term years ago and was immediately intrigued. However, he admits it's been a longer and more difficult process than he thought (think: the time required up front). Hines compares passive income to its counterpart, active
