Danny and the Deep Blue Sea was the first glimpse of what he could really do ... but Savage in Limbo takes it to the next level. John Patrick Shanley writes about the Bronx. He writes about men and women, their struggles to connect. He writes about people who grew up Catholic. He writes about tough guys and bar flies.

script is a very difficult task to undertake because of the concert play style that Shanley calls his show. It is important to understand why the playwright is writing the script rather than just what the play is about. The underlying meaning within Savage In Limbo: A Concert Play is why it is a concert play.
