It is Zia who mainly shaped the deeply flawed social, political, economic, security and foreign policy structures of today's Pakistan and crippled its long-term capacities. In each sphere, he injected new toxic strains, elevated existing ones hugely or reversed gains from previous eras.

Zia's Pakistan - Daily Business World

The IMF programme to support Pakistan's external account is expected to restart in early 2021. We forecast that the ruling PTI will complete its term, ending in 2023, with the military's tacit support. Nevertheless, there will be considerable risks to political stability. Relations with India will remain strained.
